Subject A chronological story of why Burtonwood was built, the first RAF units, their activities expansion and take over by the USAAF in 1943, full details of WWII activities, run down and hand back to RAF and then re-occupation by the USAF in 1948, Berlin Airlift, Cold War, USAF leave, US Army arrive; eventual run down and close in 1993.

Presentation Powerpoint with some additional video clips

Time 7.00 - 10.00 pm Doors open at 6.45 and a break at approx 8.30 pm

Cost Single payment of £15.00 per person for all three lectures.
As this is a course of three lectures we regret that as we have so many wanting to attend all three we cannot make special arrangements for attending single lectures

Reservation By pre-payment.

We regret cheque only at this time made payable to 'RAF Burtonwood Association'

Please send cheques to Aldon Ferguson, 18 Ridgeway, Wargrave, Reading RG10 8AS on the form below. Please don't forget to add your e-mail address and contact phone number

Parking Free adjacent to the hotel

Directions Follow the brown road signs to Gulliver's World; on entering the Park the hotel is immediately in front of you; parking is to the left side

Please note We were totally oversubscribed last time and this form has initially gone out only to those who were disappointed and promised an opportunity next time. As at the end of July I have less than 20 places available so if you would like to join us please do make your reservation quickly.

All attendees will receive automatic one year's membership of our Association and receive four copies of our quarterly magazine Burtonwood Times by e-mail attachment.

We will acknowledge each reservation

If you have any queries please e-mail Aldon at aldonpf@aol.com.
